1. Per reftel (C), Charge' delivered demarche, and provided copies of country-specific background, to the Government of Jamaica (GoJ)'s Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade, Dr. Kenneth Baugh, on November 16.

2. At midday on November 19, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade (MFAFT)'s Director for International Organizations, Ms. Pamela Ingleton, confirmed to PolOff that, in light of current developments in New York, Jamaica's position regarding country-specific human rights resolutions at the UNGA Third Committee was under review; however, no final decisions had been taken as yet. PolOff noted that Embassy would appreciate any further information which the MFAFT may be able to provide regarding the GoJ's position. Post will report any further information as it becomes available.
